

2019-20 SEASON TEAM INFORMATION

WHAT IS THE US YOUTH SOCCER LEAGUES PROGRAM?

The US Youth Soccer Leagues program features the National League and a network of 13 conferences (formerly known as US Youth Soccer Regional Leagues) across the country. The competitions provide teams with the highest possible level of competition at the national and multi-state levels. The Northwest Conference is one of 13 conferences that fall under the scope of the Leagues Program and operate at a multi-state level — providing high-level competition on a consistent basis primarily at a targeted local level (Idaho, Oregon and Washington).

The National League is the top level of competition in the Leagues Program and features the best US Youth Soccer teams in the country. The National League's 14U-18U age groups feature up to 32 teams per gender, while the 19U age group features up to 16 teams per gender. The winners of each National League division earn direct entry into the US Youth Soccer National Championships, the oldest and most prestigious youth soccer national championship in the country. Top finishers in the 14U-18U National League age groups also earn automatic qualification back into the National League for the following season.

Teams must earn their place in the National League, making it the highest level of youth soccer in the country. National League participation offers increased exposure to college, professional and U.S. National Team coaches. National League alumni have gone on to earn success collegiately at the Division I, II and III levels; professionally in Major League Soccer, the National Women's Soccer League and the UEFA Champions League; and internationally with U.S. Soccer and other national teams.

The Northwest Conference's Premier I Division tier offers its teams an opportunity to qualify for the 2020-21 National League. In addition to providing a pathway to qualifying for the National League, the Northwest Conference provides teams with a chance to advance to the US Youth Soccer Far West Regional Championships, which are held annually each summer.

US YOUTH SOCCER LEAGUES PATHWAY

COMMITMENT

Any team looking to participate in the Northwest Conference must understand the level of commitment it takes to participate in a League that stretches across different state associations. All teams understand that this is a multi-state league and that teams may travel hundreds of miles to participate in conference games. Teams understand that they may not play any true “home” games. A limited number of teams are accepted into the Northwest Conference, so it is important that each team makes the commitment to travel BEFORE applying to the conference.
