How to Incorporate Recreation and Academy Programs – Steps for Success

Eric Landon
Director of Coaching
Utah Youth Soccer Association
Staff Coach USYS Region IV Boys
TABLE OF CONTENTS

- RECREATION
- ACADEMY
- INTEGRATION
- CLOSING DISCUSSION
OBJECTIVES

- Review examples of both programs and how they serve as a critical role in player and program development.

- Examine how players best learn to play and enjoy the game.

- A look at opportunities, development, and pathways to integrating both recreation and academy programs.
LEARNING TO PLAY THE GAME

No matter the level of play, what are some influences that help to determine how players learn the game?

- Environment
- Family & Friends (Peers)
- Exposure to the game
- Coaches
RECREATION

~The Game for ALL Kids~

Recreational Video
RECREATION

~The Game for ALL Kids~

- OPPORTUNITIES
- CHALLENGES
- EDUCATION
ACADEMY

~Train to Develop~

Academy Video
ACADEMY

~Train to Develop~

- IDENTIFICATION
- DEVELOPMENT
- EDUCATION
INTEGRATION

~Together Everyone Achieves More~

Integration Video
INTEGRATION
~Together Everyone Achieves More~

- ENHANCEMENT
- MANAGEMENT
- EDUCATION
INTEGRATION
~Together Everyone Achieves More~

Are you currently operating a collaborate Recreation and Academy Program?

• What are your some of your operating standards?

  ➢ Licensed/Professional coaches

  ➢ Age appropriate and program curriculum

  ➢ Full time Academy Coaching Director
INTEGRATION
~Together Everyone Achieves More~

Potential opportunities for collaborative integrations

- Clinics
- Coach mentor program
- Open play and unstructured play
How to Incorporate Recreation and Academy Programs – Steps for Success

Eric Landon
Director of Coaching
Utah Youth Soccer Association
Staff Coach USYS Region IV Boys